

MEASURING GUIDE & TIPS ON HOW TO SELECT THE BEST SIZE FOR YOU

- Note that all dimensions listed against each style are “garment” measurements.
- We advise that you compare measurements against a like garment you already own that fits the way you prefer (i.e. loose or fitted).
- Be aware of your “body” measurements when selecting size and how these relate to the “garment” measurements.

TO MEASURE YOUR BODY CORRECTLY:

- Keep the tape firm, but not tight.
- Measure over clothing.
- Ask someone to measure you.
- Stand up straight and look ahead.

LADIES

1. BUST – measure around the fullest part, keeping tape under arm and across the shoulder blades
2. WAIST – Measure around narrowest part of waist.
3. HIP – Measure around fullest part of seat, approx. 22cm down from the waist

MENS

4. NECK – Measure around neck where collar would normally sit.
5. CHEST – Measure around the fullest part, keeping tape under arm and across shoulder blades.
6. WAIST – Measure around waist where you would normally wear your trousers.
7. HIP – Measure around fullest part of seat.
8. INLEG – Measure from crotch to floor with shoes on

TO MEASURE GARMENTS CORRECTLY:

- Follow relevant garment type diagram to see how dimensions listed on each style are measured.
- Please allow a tolerance of -1/+1cm for each measurement.
- When comparing to your favourite existing garment be sure to lie garment flat and measure in the same position as diagrams.

*Note 'BACK LENGTH' is measured from neck seam to hem.

- A = CHEST or BUST - Measure just below armhole edge to edge.
- B = BODY LENGTH - Measure from neck point to hem.
- C = WAIST - For shirts and jackets measure at narrowest point.
- D = HIP - For shirts and jackets measure at hem (except for coat).
- E = SLEEVE LENGTH - For shirts measure from shoulder seam to edge of cuff.
- F = NECK - For shirts measure from buttonhole to button.
- G = WAIST - For trousers and skirts measure straight across fastened waistband.
- H = HIP - For trousers and skirts measure at widest part approx 22cm down from waist.
- I = INLEG - Measure from crotch to hem.
